

ILOPROST

Form:	0.1mg per 1ml ampoule (Ilomedin™)
Reconstitution:	Already in solution
Administration:	IV infusion
Method:	Add the contents of a 1ml ampoule of iloprost to 500ml of compatible fluid, and mix thoroughly. This produces a 200nanogram per ml solution. Infuse over a period of six hours once daily, at a usual dose of 0.5-2nanogram per kilogram per minute.
Compatibility & Stability:	Sodium chloride 0.9% Glucose 5%
Special Notes:	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The solution should be made up freshly each day to ensure sterility.2. The infusion should be stopped at the end of the six hour period and any contents remaining in the bag must be discarded.3. The blood pressure and heart rate must be measured at the start of the infusion and after every increase of the dose.